

This corporate donation to Hand in Hand gives more people the opportunity to start micro-enterprises, support their families, send the children to school and start believing in the future again.